OF ST. JAMES SCHOOL IN NORTH PHILLY

St. James School is a tuition-free middle school in the Episcopal tradition located in North Philadelphia. Students receive the type of education seen at the region's best private schools, which includes: small class sizes, extended day and year, highly qualified instructors with advanced degrees, iPads and computers as teaching tools, and more. As a tuition free school serving a low income population, St. James School relies on the generosity of donors to further its mission.
